KIT & LILY - Belgian Draft Mules

 FULL SISTERS

Kit and Lily are strikingly beautiful matched team of mules that you can DRIVE and RIDE! Perfectly matched in color, looks and size, both standing 15.1 hands. Safe and sane for family trail drives. Drive them one day, ride them the next! Ride one on a pony the other or leave one back at the barn. They can sit for months and then go to work like it was yesterday. They've been driven on local trails, into town, at events, parades and with large groups with riders. They had a 30-day riding tune-up with two different professional trainers summer of 2016. Well-mannered and polite. Both could be driven single. Anyone can load and back them into the trailer stalls, easy to harness and drive. They cross water and bridges with ease. The best part about these girls is that they are both independent of each other and not buddy sour. Easy to catch, clip from head to toe, even their ears. You can blow them off with a leaf blower to get them clean. They have great feet, most of the time they don't wear shoes, but they are easy to shoe with no issues all the way around. Never been lame or off in any way. Good for the vet, UTD on spring vaccinations, Coggins, deworming and farrier. They take de-wormers and medications with ease. Buy them and you would only be their third owner. Don't miss out on this wonderful team of mules!

Angels Red Nugget, aka Nugget, is a beautiful mare that the entire family can enjoy. She's the sweetest horse on the farm and is an in your pocket type. She could go any direction you would like, from trail riding to the show ring, as she has that fancy type of move and is as good-minded as they come. Nugget will walk, jog, lope or even move out into trot or canter if asked to. She works off your legs as well as voice commands. She crosses creeks and will go wherever you point her head with ease. She'll never disappoint and would be a great addition for anyone's home. Nugget is 100% sound and has no vices.

CHICKEN NOODLE SOUP - Grade Pony

2010 White w/Black Points Gelding

Chicken Noodle Soup is a uniquely colored pony gelding standing 10.2 hands tall. In addition to being adorable, he is friendly and kind, and will meet you at the gate, wanting to be caught. He may be small but that doesn't stop him from carrying his little riders into water, through pastures, and over obstacles and rough terrain. Chicken Noodle Soup will walk, trot and lope, and rides safely alone or in a group. He's a neat little guy who loves attention. Come, check him out.

BLACKBURN POCO ZIP - AQHA 4198657
2002 Palomino Mare

POCO CLYDE BLACKBURN

FANTASTICALLY ZIPPED

Blackburn Poco Zip (Reno) is a sweet 15.1 hand palomino mare. She behaves more like a gelding than a mare; her temperament remains even throughout the year with none of the spring to fall issues you might expect from a mare. Although Reno retired from showing when I bought her, she has been successfully shown in ranch horse classes. She loads, drops her head for clipping and halter or headstall placement, and stands quietly for the farrier. Dogs don't seem to bother here. In fact, her only vice is the expectation of treats when we finish a ride! Increased work commitments force me to sell Reno. She deserves more time and attention than I can provide.

Stunning 5YO Friesian cross gelding, 15.2 hands, black with star and small snip. He's an excellent trail horse. Loves to lead! Goes western and English. Very easy to catch and loads nicely. This horse has a lot of energy and doesn't require an experienced rider. He's very engaging and likes to play with other horses in the pasture. (Not an alpha horse!) Duc has a beautiful gait – walk, trot and canter. He will stop on a dime at the word "Whoa!" He'll take your breath away. No shoeing necessary, very hard hooves, and not tender footed. Coggins, worming, vet check 3-16-18 by Dr. Tiffany, Coastal Equine, 757-421-3900. Farrier is Dennis Butler, 757-478-9433.

She's gone on all kinds of trails willingly and never seems to get tired. She has a big, beautiful butt and a baby-doll face. You'll love her. She's 100% sound. Stands 15 hands. No bad habits.

He's an excellent trail horse, crosses water and other obstacles easily. He rides out fine alone or with other horses. Charlie is friendly and easy to catch. He'll lead or follow on trails, been to open and breed shows. He loads and hauls quietly. Doesn't stress about being in a new place – take him off the trailer and have fun! He has some cutting training, will work a cow. Gathered a herd of momma cows, and dragged the roping dummy. Will patiently stand tied to the trailer or the walker all day, cross-ties, bathes, wears blankets/sheets, etc., lunges free or on a line, vacuum him, clean his sheath, turn him out in the pasture with anybody or keep him in a stall. If you're looking for a horse to show on competitive trail rides or AQHA ranch riding, Jack is your horse. In my show string for about 6 mos. last year, very competitive on the AQHA circuit. The only reason he's being sold is that his owner is upgrading to a more advanced show horse. Jack is safe, safe, safe for anyone to ride or show. An absolute joy to be around, tying, hauling, riding alone or in groups. He's ponied other horses and gets along with any horse you turn him out with. One of the smoothest trot/jogs you can get on a horse. Did I mention that he's big, black and beautiful? Stands 15.2 and has a beautiful head. Come by and take him for a spin!

AN ABSOLUTE DREAM

BRIGHT EYES BOBBYE

Cash is 14.3 hands, started at 3 by trainer he is currently under. Owned by Boys & Girls Home of N.C. for 2 years. Training has advanced into the show ring in ranch riding and obstacle courses. Has ApHC breeder's certificate, never registered. Perfect gentleman, disposition every beginner or timid rider desires. Very confident in himself and his rider, willing to patiently cross everything you ask him to face, in a group or alone. Trails and obstacle courses are where he's happiest; correct lead departures, lead changes, lateral movements, spins, neck reining and stops to keep you in the show ring. The past 2 years he's been shown by youth in 4-H, open shows, pushed cattle, used for therapeutic riding for our foster children. He's served his purpose as our foster children have loved him, cared for him, and he's provided the love, security and support they needed as newer, greener horses cycle into our equine program. Proceeds will benefit the B&GH equine program, and in, turn, the children, 100%.

Buttons is 14.2 hands and has no color markings. She was born, raised and trained at R&S Paso Fino. As a granddaughter of Capuchino on the top side and Dictador de Quisqueya on the bottom, this mare carries some of the top Paso Fino bloodlines which makes her an excellent broodmare prospect. Along with her excellent breeding, she has a great mind which enables her to be a show horse as well as a confident trail horse. She excels on the trail. When in a group she can lead, be in the middle or bring up the rear, all while carrying the same demeanor. She's also confident enough to ride the trails solo. You won't get sore after many hours in the saddle either, because she's a Paso Fino and they're known for being the world's smoothest riding horses. As you can see in her video, Buttons has had the comprehensive, professional training that's needed for an all-around great horse.

Gin is 15 hands. If safety, pedigree and good looking is on your list, we have one for you to look at! We had him on the farm almost a year. Last summer our son Kyle, 5 yrs. old, rode Gin on trails, through creeks and on the state routes. Gin took care of him. Sound, safe, sane. If you want to work come cows, he'll take care of you. Very steady. Let him set for two weeks or two months, he'll take care of you. He has that personality. We know there is no such thing as a perfect horse, but Gin is very close. No matter what level rider you are if you've never been on a horse, this is the horse for you. Well trained and knows all the cues for experienced riders but will slow down and take it easy for even the first time rider. We had a lot of horses come through our barn but he stands out as one of the most exceptional horses we have ever had. He's UTD on shots and deworming. He has a set of good X-rays available upon request.

In addition to being a finished bridle horse for NRCHA, he has shown in trail, conformation, reining, cutting, ranch riding, heading, heeling, steer stopping and ranch roping. He has a big stop, great turnarounds, and he'll give you everything he has and then some. Some recent accomplishments including winning the #8 heading at the Block and Bridle roping, qualifying for the 2018 NRCHA World Champions Ship, and qualifying for the 2018 AQHA Versatility World Show. Not only is Red a phenomenal and versatile show horse, but he is also a great horse to use on the farm. Red has spent countless hours in the field catching wild cattle and doctoring calves. Just as he gives you 100% in the show pen, he gives 100% when working outside the arena. Red is the same horse every time, even if he's not been ridden daily. He's an easy keeper, loads, clips, ties and bathes. While he'll crib if bored in a stall, it is very easily controlled with a light cribbing collar. Red will make a great addition to your show program, working ranch, or just to enjoy as a horse you can do a little bit of everything on.

She stands 15.2 hands which is hard to find in a reiner these days, which helps her double as an English and western dressage horse at open shows. She loves to work and gives 100% every trip. Has been shown NRHA, AQHA and ARHA. An NRHA money earner, circuit champion, and ARHA. This mare will pack anyone around and is a very good teacher. Shown in green reiner, youth 13 & under, rookie, amateur and open reining, novice amateur, amateur, and open ranch riding. It's tough to find this caliber of horse that's as honest as Timber and especially one that doesn't need to be worked daily or even kept at a trainer's. She is only 4YO but has the mind of a seasoned show horse. She's been hauled to and ridden at many shows but has yet to be shown. Started as a 2YO and was on track for NRHA futurity until she fell at a show due to bad ground. Turned out until the summer of her 3YO year to be ridden by the breeder's daughter until she returned to school that fall. This mare has never taken a lame step and will X-ray clean. She's just slightly behind in her training but will make a nice NRHA Derby horse or an AQHA, ARHA reining and ranch riding horse, or even an exceptional broodmare with her top of the line pedigree. She is 14.2 hands and built just right, with a phenomenal hip and shoulder. We've taken her out on trail rides, gone through a few obstacle courses, tracked cattle and even the hot heels. Buddy is a beautiful 15.1-hand horse. Bred and born on the Froelich Ranch in N.D. where we bought him as a weanling. We started him as a 2YO, easy to start, and has been a great horse. Buddy has been my wife's trail horse and my go to horse from roping wild cows to doctoring and dragging calves. He's also been trail ridden in the mountains and all sorts of terrain, used in parades, even used by a 12-yr.-old girl for fair last year when her own horse became lame the day before the fair started. During the fair, Buddy placed in all 17 classes he was entered in even though he had never done some of the events before, such as jumping. He received a blue ribbon in trail and a 2nd in versatility. Buddy neck reins, yields to leg pressure, backs up well. He also does correct lead departures, flying lead changes, and has a super stop. Buddy stands for farrier, clips, loads in a trailer really easily. Check him out in his video and I look forward to showing him at the sale.

Jumps big over obstacles and is brave enough to lead the pack. You name it, this horse can do it. Our Kawaski mule got stuck in the mud and Rocky saved the day by pulling us out. Pasture roped off of, and will track cows all day. He maybe big but he is gentle and kind. Don't miss out on this wonderful horse. He'll make a great addition in any barn.

Goes on hunts and cow catches with dogs and doesn't go after them when they are running around him. This mule is mainly used for day work on the ranch, from catching wild cows, to doctoring, ponying colts, then team ropes on the weekends and will rope both ends. He has a nice stop, an exceptional one-hand handle an knows how to pull from the horn. Tom Tom will go anywhere you point him when out in the trail, so you'd better be ready if you ask. Flint stands 15.3 hands. He's been successful in the show ring, including open show circuits and 4-H shows, excelling in HUS, ranch riding. His absolute most talented area is trail and obstacle courses. His ground manners are much more pleasing than a showmanship horse as he moves with you and away from you with the slightest cue. He's pushed cattle and been on numerous trail rides alone and with a group. He's prepared for just about any situation on any terrain. Owned since he was 3YO, Flint's foundation was based on reining training to achieve the lateral movements of side-passes and spins, quick stopper, very soft on the bit, correct lead departures, able to move the face, shoulder and hips independently. Because of his foundation, he has no vices and is the most cooperative horse, always looking to his rider/handler as to what to do next. He's definitely an overachiever and a pleaser.

But ANYWHERE Hondo goes, she's right there with him like a colt following its mama. If you go on a trail ride she'll never leave his side.
