Poncho Villa is a super fun ranch type gelding. Poncho is a grade leopard Appaloosa. He is 6 yrs. old and 15 hands. The possibilities are endless. Used to check cattle and do ranch work in NW Missouri. Trail ridden in a group and alone. Had a good bit of arena training also. Rides soft in the bridle, works off the leg, walks, jogs and lopes both ways. Started on slow spins. Athletic and forward thinking. Has carried the flag with no problems. Would make an eye-catching drill team or grand entry horse. Shot off of as well. His athleticism and forward thinking mind would make him an excellent mounted shooting horse. Loves having a job, quick to learn. Not for rank beginners as he is light and responsive to leg and rein pressure. Rides both in a snaffle and shank bit. Learning to neck rein and can easily ride one handed with leg pressure. Fun, loving personality, a pleasure to have in the bar. Learning some fun tricks, like sitting on a bean bag and lying down. We recently had a basic PPE and soundness exam done (January) to have available for potential buyers to see if they so wish. For more information, contact Jonathan Waugh, 606-748-9721.

"Tuesday" is a 2016 pretty AQHA, palomino mare that stands at 14.3 hands. Nice mare. Has had training with professional trainers. Been with John Roberts to learn obstacle work, leg and hip yields, side passing and all the buttons needed for a good ride. Will be soft and give you a nice smooth ride. Will jog and lope easy like a pleasure horse when you want it. Enjoys trail riding, has been to Mt. Rogers for the Longhorn Cow Round Up. Has many mountain trail rides, safe on the trails. Friends and children ride this mare and everyone gets along well with her. Pleasant disposition, when you call her name in the pasture, she will come and put her head right in the halter. Does well in pasture and stall. Sent to a team roping trainer for a few months, she did well roping the sled and live cattle, on the head side. If you want a horse that is athletic and willing this is the mare. We call her a half cow horse, half pleasure horse, since she will go either way you want. Enjoy the trails and mountains with her or go swing a rope, either way you will enjoy this nice mare. Contact 276-235-1537.

Here is our amazing Gypsy cross 5 yr. old 14.1 hand mare. It really takes a special mare for our farm to take one in an stamp our name on it. Super light on the reins and soft in the face. Will work off your leg at any gait. An amazing fence horse that always finds an extra gear on the fast cows and will never miss a turn. Because of his strength and quickness, he is best suited for teens and adult riders. If you want to trail ride, Stevie has always been solid on the trails. Super quiet with no vices. I have owned and trained him myself since he was a yearling. Don't let his age fool you, he has a lot of good years in him yet. Triple R Stables has brought y'all a very rare find. A 13.3. hand, 950 lb. purebred Gypsy Vanner gelding that goes English, western, harness, trails and ranch work. Vaquero is so stinking cute that you want to put him on a leash and take him for a walk in the park to show him off to all your friends! Exceptionally well trained! Will ride as well outside the arena as in the arena. Responding and riding very well from seat and leg cues, collects up and lopes circles on a loose rein and has no problem picking up both leads. Can side pass, half pass, all without a bridle. This past summer we put a lot of trail miles on him. Very confident, you point him, and he goes. Into the river with water up to his chest, over the logs, up and down any steep trail, through the brush and ravines – this little guy can master it. Last fall he was at our annual cattle roundup, form sorting and penning, to dragging calves to the fire, he's done it all. Listen to this! Well broke to drive in a cart. He has been down town in heavy traffic, through the red lights. There is not a truck big enough to care him. What a special package, that hard to find size, great for the kids, but sturdy enough for grandma, and not to mention he is easy to mount. Sweet as a kitten, loves people, great to work with and fun and easy to train. His video is a must see. Be sure to stop by his stall and meet him and check out his mustache!
